Women’s Firearms Safety Course Application

WAIVER, RELEASE, AND INDEMNIFICATION

The Rome Police Department conducts a course known as the “Womens Firearm Safety Course,” open to local citizens in which citizens are exposed to all major aspects of the operations of the Rome Police Department. The Department conducts the class on the premises of the Rome Police Department, including particularly (but without limitation,) class sessions at the Joe Cleveland Training Center. In consideration for the privilege and benefits to be derived from participation in the Women’s Firearm Safety Course, the Department is requiring all participants therein to execute this waiver, release and indemnification.

Participation in the Women’s Firearm Safety Course sessions may involve physical activities such as, but not limited to, lifting, walking, riding, and the discharge of firearms, and will include risks such as falls, interaction with other participants, effects of weather, the physical conditions of the facilities and features and equipment located thereon, together with the inherent risks of being in close proximity to the discharge of firearms and the utilization of various items of equipment and other weaponry used by law enforcement personnel. Participant expressly assumes these and all other risks arising in any way out of participant’s participation in Women’s Firearm Safety Course activities; including any transportation provided to, from and between such activities, and agrees to stop and request assistance if experiencing any symptoms or other conditions which would make it difficult or unsafe to continue; further understanding that Participant is solely responsible for their own health and safety. Participant understands that during all Women’s Firearm Safety Course times, the privilege of their participation shall be governed by the Rome Police Department (inclusive of officers, officials, representatives and employees) and Participant will abide by and follow any directions given by the Rome Police Department Personnel.

On behalf of Participant’s self, heirs, executors and assigns, Participant does hereby waive and personally assume any and all risks and liability for damages, losses, personal injuries or death which Participant might suffer, sustain or cause while participating in any activities of the Women’s Firearm Safety Course and Participant does hereby release and forever discharge the Rome Police Department and City of Rome, all officers, agents, employees, representatives, and other personnel (in their official and individual capacities,) and the County of Floyd, Georgia, (collectively, the “releases”) from any and all claims, demands, actions, damages, or suits at law or equity of whatever nature which Participant has or may hereafter acquire against the Releasee as a result of Participant’s voluntary participation in the afore described activities, and Participant hereby holds harmless and agrees to indemnify Releases for all damages, attorneys fees and costs which may be incurred in defending any such demands, claims, actions and the like.
